Serial No.

Letter no. 15164 dated 23rd January 1933 from the Registrar, Mysore university, regarding the grant of furlough leave to temporary employees of the university.

(Submitted) The Registrar refers to exception 1 to Article 197 M&OR as amended by correction slip no ~~185~~ 256 dated 26-9-32. under this exception, Employees of certain departments (mentioned therein) who have put in a continuous service of not less than five years in temporary appointments may be given the benefit of long leave and leave allowances admissible to permanent employees provided that it is definitely certified by the head of the department concerned in each case of grant of leave that there is a reasonable prospect of the individual being confirmed ~~without~~ without any interruption in service. The Registrar requests that the benefit of this exception to Article 197 may be extended to the employees of the Mysore university. There appears to be some force in the recommendation of the university as there are several temporary appointments in the university. The Education section may perhaps be consulted.

GENERAL SECRETARY 24 JAN. 1933 No 601

SIR,

I am directed to bring to the notice of Government that in the University staff - both tutorial and ministerial - there are several persons either holding temporary places or appointed on a temporary basis in permanent places. The question of making them permanent will be separately submitted.

In the meanwhile, I am to state that much inconvenience is experienced by those among the above who are obliged to apply for furlough. The rules in the Mysore Service Regulations do not permit of furlough being granted to temporary employees with the consequence that persons in temporary posts have either to be granted privilege leave on half pay or leave without pay, whatever the length of service may be. It need hardly be pointed out that this is really an unnecessary hardship and undeserved.

In this connection, I am to invite kind reference to the provisions of G.O.No.Fl.1914/S.& A.133-32-2, dated the 26th September 1932, directing employees or specified classes of employees that of certain departments detailed therein who have put in a continuous service of not less than 5 years may in temporary appointments may be given the benefit of long leave and leave allowances admissible to permanent employees and to request that Government may kindly be moved to extend the application of the Government order to the temporary employees of the University also.

I am to request further that this representation may kindly be given very early and sympathetic consideration.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Registrar.
